In a privileged natural setting, just 20 minutes from Huéscar, lies this charming cave house brimming with possibilities, ideal for those seeking tranquility, authenticity, and a connection with nature. Surrounded by ample land, the property offers a unique space where silence, fresh air, and open views take center stage.

The main house, in a traditional style, is embraced by a pleasant terrace that runs along its facade, perfect for enjoying leisurely breakfasts in the sun, unforgettable sunsets, or evenings outdoors contemplating the surrounding landscape. Adjacent to the house, several additional caves add special value, serving as storage spaces, leisure areas, or even for expanding the living space according to the future owner's needs.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a cozy dining room with a fireplace, the heart of the home, where you can imagine warm gatherings in winter. To the left, the space under the stairs has been cleverly utilized as a storage area, offering practical storage space. Opposite the dining room, we find a room that could easily be transformed into a kitchen, allowing for a functional and customized space.

On this same floor are two rooms, one larger and one smaller, ideal as bedrooms, an office, or for any other use. A few steps to the left lead to another room that could be converted into an additional bedroom, adding versatility to the home.

Upstairs, two more rooms offer multiple possibilities, whether as bedrooms, a living room, or creative spaces. Their wooden ceilings add warmth and character, and their windows offer charming views that connect the interior with the natural surroundings.

Outside, the property also features a traditional wood-fired oven, perfect for lovers of rustic cooking, as well as a small separate room ideal for storage. Currently, the house is accessed on foot, about 100 meters away, although there is the possibility of creating a driveway, which would significantly increase convenience.

It's important to note that the house needs to be renovated before moving in, as it currently lacks a kitchen and bathroom. However, it does have essential utilities such as electricity and water, which greatly simplifies any renovation project.

This property presents a unique opportunity to create a charming home in an unparalleled setting, enjoying the peace of the countryside without sacrificing the convenience of a town like Huéscar, where you'll find all the necessary amenities: shops, bars, pharmacies, a medical center, and much more.

A place to start a new life or enjoy peaceful and authentic getaways.
