This property in Serón is a newly built shell. It has a surface build area of 100 m², including the porch area to the front. The foundations are laid, and external structure and roof are complete. This property is located in a lovely rural position with fantastic views over open countryside. The plot is around 6,000 m², totally flat, ready to be landscaped. Excellent access, spectacular views and very quiet location.

Drinking mains water is connected and electricity is very close so the connection costs will not be excessive.
