This house is located in the beautiful town of Cela, just 5 minutes from the important town of Tíjola, where all the necessary services are found, as well as its weekly open-air market, which is well known and important throughout the area. Cela is known throughout the province and in many other places for having a large hot spring. The water temperature being constant all year round. Around the spring there are large outdoor spaces in which to enjoy a day with the family in winter and summer. In this fantastic town there are several very busy bars and restaurants, as well as a shop, a doctor's office, a library, a school.... Cela is very flat, therefore very easy to walk and play sports. It is surrounded by beautiful mountains and valleys.

This small semi-detached house is located in the town of Cela. Its location is magnificent just 3 minutes from the hot springs source. Parking in the same door. To enter the property we enter through a corridor, where on the right we find a good-sized living room, on the left a garage that could be converted into a bedroom, in front of it a kitchen with an interior patio and a toilet. First floor we have three bedrooms, one of them with a balcony, and a bathroom. property located in Cela, Valle del Almanzora, interior of Almeria.
