Cela

€32,000

The land for sale in Cela is a space of 4,030 meters and a room of about 21 square meters, with a wide variety of fruit trees, including 120 olive trees in production, orange trees, lemon trees and vineyards. It has 4 hours of water from the Cela irrigation community, as well as a drip irrigation system that facilitates the cultivation of vegetables.

The property has easy access and is just 200 meters from all the necessary services, such as supermarkets, shops, restaurants, schools, a medical center, pharmacies and sports centers in the town of Tíjola, which is just 2 kilometers away. In addition, there is a weekly market on Saturdays, allowing access to fresh local products.

The location of the land in the Almanzora Valley, in the province of Almería, in Andalusia, Spain, offers the opportunity to enjoy the tranquility of the interior while being only 50 minutes from the beach and relatively short distances from cities such as Almería and Granada, which are 1 hour and 20 minutes and 1 hour and 30 minutes away respectively. It is an excellent option for those looking for a place to farm, enjoy nature and have access to all the necessary services in a quiet and picturesque environment.
