Purchena

€21,000

The house in Purchena is a charming property consisting of two floors. On the ground floor, we find two bedrooms and a staircase that gives access to the first floor, where we have a cozy living room with fireplace, an additional room and a bathroom. The roof of the house is a terrace that can be accessed by stairs that can be built.

The property is perfect for a couple looking for a quiet home with magnificent views. It has services such as electricity, water, etc., and is located just 200 meters from all the services of the town. Purchena is a quiet town with a wide range of services, such as schools, a doctor's office, restaurants, supermarkets, pharmacies, sports and leisure centers, among others.

The area is very quiet and you can enjoy life in a town with traditions such as the Moors and Christians festivals, which give it a special charm. Just 5 minutes from Olula del Río, where all the necessary services are located, this house is ideal for those looking for a quiet and charming place in the Almanzora Valley, in the interior of Almería. A unique opportunity to enjoy the tranquility and spectacular views of this beautiful region!
