€134,000

This is a spacious and comfortable house, with a modern design and incredible views. The entrance through the fenced plot provides privacy and security, while the semi-basement garage offers space for several cars and the possibility of creating an additional home.

Inside, we find a spacious living room, several bedrooms and bathrooms, a full kitchen with pantry and laundry room, and all the amenities necessary for comfortable living. Double-glazed windows and heating installation ensure a pleasant atmosphere in all seasons.

In addition, the house has a large outdoor space with the potential to be transformed into a barbecue area, swimming pool or garden, offering endless possibilities to enjoy the outdoors and the stunning views of the Jabalcón, Castril and La Sagra mountain ranges.

In short, this house is a unique opportunity to have the home of your dreams, with everything you need to live comfortably and to fit it out to your personal taste.
